Delegates to the 91st Convention

CORRESPONDENCE #5

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

The Antamoma held July 25-29, 2019 in Rhodes was an outstanding success. The Mayor of Rhodes, Fotios Hatzidiakos along with his respective offices, were most gracious. Pictures and details of the wonderful events will be shared with you at the convention!

Our brothers and sisters from Baltimore have planned a wonderful convention October 4, 5 and 6, 2019. Being that many of you have relatives and friends in Baltimore, please make every effort to attend. The members promise to make this an exciting and memorable weekend. Attached is the outline of events. With great pleasure we convey to you that during this convention we will be blessed to have the Agia Paraskevi icon from Kattavia with us. Father Zacharia from Kattavia and Mr. Zanetakis, President of the Kattavia Community Council will accompany the icon. We are truly blessed.

With all your wonderful contributions, the repairs to the church in Apollona were completed. YOU made this possible ...THANK YOU.

On Saturday, October 12 Apollon will participate in a one-day conference at the Paideia/UCONN Center for the 100 years anniversary from Αματηρο Πασχα in Rhodes during the occupation years under Facist Italy. This is a joint effort with the Dodecanesian Federation and Paideia. The following day a conference for the History of Jewish Community of Rhodes. It is the oldest community in Greece and Europe with 2300 years continuity. This is jointly with Paideia and the Center for Judaic Studies, UCONN campus.

Please disseminate this information to all your members.

When you hold your general assembly of your chapter to elect your convention delegates, please gather the names, addresses, email addresses and phone numbers of all your members. Send this list along with your chapter's per capita ($10 per member) to the Supreme Lodge. Thank you to all the chapters who have already sent this information.

Our best to you and your members,
